

HR platform

Happier employees. Sharper decisions. Stronger results.

One platform to measure, prioritize, and improve the work environment

Many companies have plenty of data—but lack a clear picture of which actions to prioritize. Peoplexact brings all your surveys together in one place and automatically shows which areas leaders should address first.

Built on research. Designed for people.

Follow-up that works

Focus areas, concrete suggestions, and simple follow-up in one place. Get a complete overview of whether actions are being followed through—and enable leaders to set direction where it matters most.

Cross-organizational overview

From engagement to leadership—with a unified overview, you can spot patterns across surveys and departments, so you know exactly where to act.

The people behind the platform

Our advisors support you with both big and small needs. You collaborate directly with experts who know the platform inside out and understand what works in your industry.

Reliable data

Your data stays in Denmark. Full anonymity and high data security give employees the confidence to respond honestly—and provide you with a decision-making foundation you can trust.

What you can expect

Tailored to you: whether you're measuring for the first time or renewing your approach

Quick to get started: from contract to first survey in 1 day - if you want

Support when it matters: onboarding and a dedicated contact person from day one

Well-being is one of your best investments

Your employees deserve more than an engagement survey that provides answers but no direction. Book a no-obligation conversation and experience how Peoplexact delivers clear insights and direction.

The meeting takes 30 minutes. The impact lasts much longer.
